

What Feminists Can Do In Their Local Communities to Combat Homophobia/Biphobia/Transphobia

Small actions that make a difference:

- Wear a pin that represents your support the LGBT community
- Put a safe space sticker on your doors and/or locker
- Donate to a LGBT grassroots organization
- Participate in the “Day of Silence”
- Educate yourself about homophobia, transphobia, and biphobia

Medium actions that make a difference:

- Educate your friends and family about homophobia, transphobia, and biphobia
- Join a protest, rally, etc. that is fighting for equal rights for the LGBT community
- Print out flyers (available links above) and had them out at school
- Organize or join a Gay Straight Alliance at your school
- Organize a meeting to educate your colleagues on homophobia, biphobia, transphobia

Large actions that make a difference:

- Organize a LGBT pride week at school or in your local community
- Organize a town meeting to help educate and reach out to your local community to inspire them to be active in the fight for the LGBT community
- Before or after services at your church, synagogue, mosque, temple conduct an educational
- Write your local congressman letters expressing the support you have for the LGBT community and equal rights