

NOW ENDS ECONOMIC SUPPORT OF HOSTILE ENVIRONMENTS

WHEREAS, the National Organization for Women (NOW) does not economically support states deemed extremely hostile towards abortion access; and

WHEREAS, trigger laws are defined as laws that immediately ban abortion in the case that Roe v. Wade is overturned by the Supreme Court;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that NOW will not hold national conferences in the states that have total abortion bans; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that NOW would increase their education efforts in the states where trigger laws have been enacted; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that we encourage NOW members to support abortion and other reproductive health funds where trigger laws have been enacted.

Note: As of July 1, 2019, states with trigger laws include: Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, West Virginia, and Wisconsin
