

NOW Budget Committee Report

The Budget Committee of the National Organization for Women has been meeting throughout the year.

The Budget members are: Kobby Hoffman, Myra Terry, BJ Star, and Cindy Drabek as chair.

Our Committee has always encouraged 100% participation in all discussions and reviews.

Currently, the financial reports of the organization are on the projected time line of 30 days. President Van Pelt has made the current presentation of our financials as a priority and has made every effort to reach this goal successfully.

The current 2019 year is under budget and all financials are up to date.

These financials have been shared with the Budget committee throughout the year. President Van Pelt has been available to the committee and has answered all questions thoroughly.

2020 Budget

The NOW Budget committee has been meeting on regularly scheduled, planned calls on Wednesdays to discuss and review the 2020 Budgetary process. All the committee members have been asked their direction and all questions have been answered thoroughly. The Budget team has experience in generating and reviewing budgets, projections, and actualized expenses.

Thoughtful discussion and economic trends have been taken into consideration in all projections. The NOW Budget committee is proud to support and present the 2020 Budget to the board for their review.
