Our First Issue!

AWESOME!

welcome!

As our first issue of the NOW Young Feminists Newsletter, we hope that in the future we can use this email to keep all of NOW's Young Feminists up to date with NOW National and each other!

Women's History Month: NOW's History

Proposed by Betty Friedan and Pauli Murray in 1966, NOW was founded to serve as the leading civil rights organization for women. Since its founding, NOW has been at the forefront of women's rights battles such as passing the ERA through Congress, working at the forefront of sex discrimination cases in employment and the protection of abortion clinics, and hosting hundreds of chapters nationwide for women to come together and organize for their communities and the nation.

Book of the Month

COMING SOON-- NOW Young Feminists will be a part of a new NOW Book Club! Info on the book club will be shared soon!

the Month

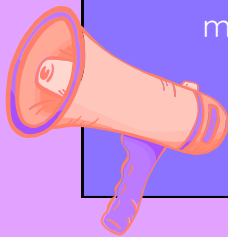

Hot Topics

The Alabama Supreme Court ruling recognizing embryos as children has had far-reaching implications for fertility care for women. IVF protections have been enacted in Alabama and proposed federally, but access to birth control and emergency contraception are the real target for these regressive policies. Look into access to emergency contraception in your area—if you're a college student your campus could even have access to emergency contraception vending machines! Check out Emergency Contraception 4 Every Campus for more information on EC Vending Machines and other emergency contraception advocacy!

CAN Spotlight

After February's CAN Meet-and-Greet, CANs across the nation are focused on one issue more than others-- menstrual equity! Want to take part? IGNITE x PERIOD. is hosting a free online organizing academy around menstrual equity -- Register HERE for free!
