

2026 National NOW Conference

Sponsorship Prospectus

Celebrating 60 Years of Feminist Power, Progress, and Possibility
The Westin Alexandria Old Town | Alexandria, VA | June 26–28, 2026

For six decades, the National Organization for Women (NOW) has been at the forefront of advancing gender justice, defending civil rights, and mobilizing grassroots activists across the country. The 2026 National NOW Conference marks a historic milestone, 60 years of feminist leadership, and will convene advocates, organizers, thought leaders, students, and movement partners from across the United States.

This national gathering is more than a conference. It is a strategy summit, a movement-building space, and a powerful public declaration that feminist resistance remains strong, intersectional, and unstoppable.

By becoming a conference sponsor, your organization will align with the nation's largest grassroots feminist network and demonstrate visible support for advancing equity, justice, and human rights. Sponsorship provides meaningful brand visibility, thought leadership engagement, and direct access to a highly engaged audience of changemakers and decision-makers. Whether your goal is national brand recognition, targeted audience engagement, or deep partnership with movement leaders, there is a level that fits your objectives.

If you are interested in exhibiting, advertising, or sponsoring the 2026 NOW Conference, or if you have additional questions, please contact: fund@now.org
